

Name:	Piotr Dombrowicki
Nomination:	Annex I
Nationality:	Polish
Resident:	Poland
Current Employer:	National Centre for Emissions Management (KOBIZE)  under Institute of Environmental Protection – National Research Institute
Current responsibilities:	Piotr Dombrowicki is a climate policy expert with scope on market mechanisms, in particular the project based mechanisms of the Kyoto Protocol. He possesses broad experience with the assessment of JI projects implemented in Poland as an expert in the National Centre for Emissions Management. As part of the Polish delegation to the UNFCCC negotiations, he acts as a market mechanisms expert and has chaired the EU expert group on market mechanisms during the Polish Presidency in the EU Council. He was also a market mechanisms expert for the COP 19 Presidency. Vice-chair and Chair of Joint Implementation Supervisory Committee (JISC) in 2013-2014. Author and co-author of various publications with scope on the carbon market mechanisms, particularly on JI.
Relationship to National DNA/any other entity	None
Previous Employment:	Jacobs Polska Sp. Z o.o. – Assistant within the Investment Consulting and Environmental Protection Department  Ministry of the Environment – Intern in Waste Management and Environmental Impact Assessment Departments
Financial Interests:	None

Professional Affiliations:	None
Higher Education:	Postgraduate diploma in Management and Marketing at Kozminski University in Warsaw Environmental Studies programme at the University of Aarhus Msc in Interdisciplinary Environmental Protection Studies at the University of Warsaw

Date: 16 January 2015