

Name:	Paulo Manso
Nomination:	Non- Annex (GROULAC)
Nationality:	Costa Rica
Country of Residence:	Costa Rica
Current Employer:	Independent Consultant
Current responsibilities:	Consultant on Renewable and Alternative Energy, and Climate Change.
Relationship to National DNA	Advisor to the Costa Rican DNA
Previous Employment:	1977-95: Costa Rican National Meteorological Institute. 1977-90: Lecturer, School of Physics, University of Costa Rica. 1997-Present: Member of the Costa Rican Delegation to UNFCCC. 1998-08: National Focal Point to the UNFCCC. 1996-08: DNA for AIJ and CDM. 2004-08: Director, Costa Rican National Meteorological Institute. 2004-07: Member of the Executive Council, World Meteorological Organization (WMO). 2004-08: National Focal Point to the IPCC. 2004-08: National Focal Point to the Inter American Institute for Global Change (IAI), Brazil. 2007: Vice-President of the Inter American Institute for Global Change. 2008-10: Advisor, on a consultancy basis, to Nordteco S.A. on Wind Energy (resource assessment and micro-siting) and external contracts for carbon assets development (=outsourcing) to the official and voluntary markets.

Financial Interests:	No shareholder nor interest in any company.
Professional Affiliations:	No current professional membership
Higher Education:	Atmospheric Physics, BSc. (University of Costa Rica) and MSc. (Reading University, England). Industrial Engineer, BSc. (University of Costa Rica). Business Administration, MBA Finance and Banking (National University, California-USA).