

Name:	Gregory Leamon
Nationality:	Australia
Resident:	Australia
Current Employer:	Geoscience Australia, Canberra, Australia
Current responsibilities:	Technical advisor to the Australian Government on matters relating to carbon dioxide transport and geological storage. Member of Standards Australia mirror committee to ISO/TC 265, Carbon dioxide capture, transportation, and geological storage
Relationship to National DNA/any other entity	None
Previous Employment:	2003 to 2006, CO2CRC, research and economic modelling of CO₂ transport and storage. 1994 to 2002, Business manager for retail pharmacy and property development. 1988 to 1992, Papex Pty Ltd, managed joint venture operations for an offshore petroleum exploration permit in Papua New Guinea 1984 to 1988, Oil Company of Australia, managed exploration operations for two onshore permits. 1982 to 1984, Robertson Research, reviewed the petroleum resource potential of the Papuan Basin, Papua New Guinea, for the World Bank; 1980 to 1982, Robertson Research, Mapped petroleum geology of the Pearl River Mouth Basin, China.
Financial Interests:	No direct shares or holdings in companies operating in the CDM market

Professional Affiliations:	American Geophysical Union American Society of Petroleum Geologists Society of Petroleum Engineers Society of Exploration Geophysicists
Higher Education:	University of New South Wales (Sydney Australia) – Bachelor of Science Honours majoring in Marine Science (1980) Master of Engineering (by research, 2006)

Date: 20 June 2013