Designated national authority/Executive Board member submitting this form 0896 Cervecería Hondureña Methane Capture Project Title of the proposed CDM project activity submitted for registration 0896 Cervecería Hondureña Methane Capture Project Please indicate, in accordance with paragraphs 37 and 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures, which validation requirement(s) may require roview. A list of requirements is provided bolow. Please provide reasons in support of the request for review, including any supporting documentation. The following are requirements as set out in paragraph 37 of the CDM modalities and procedures are satisfied; Comments by local stakeholders have been invide, a summary of the comments received has been provided, and a report to the designide operationary impacts and. If those impacts are considered significant by the project participants or the host Party, have undertaken an environmental impact assessment in accordance with procedures are satisfied; Comments by local stakeholders have been invide, a summary of the comments received has been provided, and a report to the designificant by the project activity is expected to result in a reduction in anthropogenic emissions by sources of greenhouse gases that are additional to any that would occur in the basence of the proposed project activity, in accordance with paragraphs 43 bit are additional to any that would occur in the basence of the project activity. The project activity is expected to result in a reduction in anthropogenic emissions by sources of greenhouse gases that are additional to any that would occur in the basence of the project activity. In accordance with paragraphs 43 to the CDM modalities and procedures. The project	CDM project activity registration review form (F-CDM-RR) (By submitting this form, a Party involved (through the designated national authority) or an Executive Board member may request that a review is undertaken)
Project Please indicate, in accordance with paragraphs 37 and 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures, which validation requirement(s) may require review. A list of requirements is provided below. Please provide reasons in support of the request for review, including any supporting documentation. The following are requirements derived from paragraph 37 of the CDM modalities and procedures: The participation requirements as set out in paragraphs 28 to 30 of the CDM modalities and procedures are satisfied; Project participants have submitted to the DDC documentation on the analysis of the environmental impacts of the project activity, including transboundary impacts and, if those impacts are considered significant by the project participants thave submitted to the DDC documentation on the analysis of the environmental impacts of the project activity, including transboundary impacts and, if those impacts are considered significant by the project participants or the host Party, have undertaken an environmental impact assessment in accordance with procedures as required by the host Party; XXThe project activity is expected to result in a reduction in anthropogenic emissions by sources of greenhouse gases that are additional to any that would occur in the absence of the propect activity, in accordance with paragraphs 43 to 52 of the CDM modalities and procedures; Provisions for monitoring, verification and reporting are in accordance with decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions of the COP/MOP; The broject activity conforms to all other requirements for CDM project activities in decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions of the COP/MOP? The tollowing are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures; the DOE shall note the submission of the validation report to the Executive Board; After the deadline for receipt of comments, the DOE shall more basis of the project activity soluble validate; After the deadline for receipt validation requirement(s) may require review, including any supporting documentation. □ The following are requirements derived from paragraph 37 of the CDM modalities and procedures: □ The following are requirements as set out in paragraph 28 to 30 of the CDM modalities and procedures are satisfied; □ Comments by local stakeholders have been invited, a summary of the comments received has been provided, and a report to the designated operational entity (DOE) on how due account was taken of any comments has been provided, and a report to the designated operational entity (DOE) on how due account was taken of any comments by local participants to the hot Party, have undertaken an environmental impact assessment in accordance with procedures as required by the host Party, have undertaken an environmental impact assessment in accordance with procedures as required by the host Party, □ □ XXThe project activity is expected to result in a reduction in anthropogenic emissions by sources of greenhouse gases that are additional to any that would occur in the absence of the proposed project activity, in accordance with paragraphs 43 to 52 of the CDM modalities and procedures; □ The baseline and monitoring methodologies comply with requirements pertaining to methodologies previously approved by the Executive Board. □ The following are requirements by the CDP/MOP: □ The following are requirements by the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions of the validation report to the Executive Board. □ The following are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures;		1
The participation requirements as set out in paragraphs 28 to 30 of the CDM modalities and procedures are satisfied; Comments by local stakeholders have been invited, a summary of the comments received has been provided, and a report to the designated operational entity (DOE) on how due account was taken of any commental has been received; Comments have submitted to the DOE documentation on the analysis of the environmental impacts of the project activity, including transboundary impacts and, if those impacts are considered significant by the project participants or the host Party, have undertaken an environmental impact assessment in accordance with procedures as required by the host Party; XXThe project activity is expected to result in a reduction in anthropogenic emissions by sources of greenhouse gases that are additional to any that would occur in the absence of the proposed aroicat activity, in accordance with paragraphs 43 to 52 of the CDM modalities and procedures; Provisions for monitoring, verification and reporting are in accordance with decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions of the COP/MOP; Provisions for monitoring, verification and reporting are in accordance with decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions of the COP/MOP and the Executive Board. The following are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures: In the proved of voluntary participation from the designated national authority of each Party involved, including confirmation by the host Party that the project activity assists it in achieving sustainable development; In accordance with provisions on confidentiality contained in paragraph 27 (h) of the CDM modalities and procedures, the DOE shall make publicly available the project design document; In the DDE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation free project activity. Notification to the proje	validation requirement(s) may require review. A list of requirements is provided below. Please provide
Comments by local stakeholders have been invited, a summary of the comments received has been provided, and a report to the designated operational entity (DCE) on how due account was taken of any comments has been received; Project participants have submitted to the DOE documentation on the analysis of the environmental impacts of the project activity, including transboundary impacts and, if those impacts are considered significant by the project participants or the host Party, have undertaken an environmental impact assessment in accordance with procedures as required by the host Party; XXThe project activity is expected to result in a reduction in anthropogenic emissions by sources of greenhouse gases that are additional to any that would occur in the absence of the proposed project activity, in accordance with paragraphs 43 to 52 of the CDM modalities and procedures; The baseline and monitoring methodologies comply with requirements pertaining to methodologies previously approved by the Executive Board; The baseline and monitoring verification and reporting are in accordance with decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions of the COP/MOP; The project activity conforms to all other requirements for CDM project activities in decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions by the COP/MOP; The DOE shall, prior to the submission of the validation report to the Executive Board. The following are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures: The DOE shall, prior to the submission of the validation report to the Executive Board, have received from the project activity assists it in achieving sustainable development; The DOE shall neacordance with provisions on confidentiality contained in paragraph 27 (h) of the CDM modalities and procedures, the DOE shall make publicly available the project activity assists it in achieving sustainable development; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation	☐ The following are requirements derived from paragraph 37	of the CDM modalities and procedures:
to the designated operational entity (DOE) on how due account was taken of any comments has been received; Project participants have submitted to the DOE documentation on the analysis of the environmental impacts of the project participants or the host Party, have undertaken an environmental impact as assessment in accordance with procedures as required by the host Party; XXThe project activity is expected to result in a reduction in anthropogenic emissions by sources of greenhouse gases that are additional to any that would occur in the absence of the proposed project activity, in accordance with paragraphs 43 to 52 of the CDM modalities and procedures; The baseline and monitoring methodologies comply with requirements pertaining to methodologies previously approved by the Executive Board; Provisions for monitoring, verification and reporting are in accordance with decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions of the COP/MOP; The project activity conforms to all other requirements for CDM project activities in decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions by the COP/MOP; The following are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures: The following are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures: The following are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures; The DOE shall, prior to the submission of the validation report to the Executive Board, have received from the project activity assists it in achieving sustainable development; The DOE shall neceive, within 30 days, comments on the validation requirements from Parties, stakeholders and uncedures, the DOE shall neceive, within 30 days, comments on the validation of the project activity should be validated; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination as to whether, on the basis of the information provided and taking into account the comments received, the project activity hould be valida	The participation requirements as set out in paragraphs 28 to 30 of the CDM modalities and procedures are satisfied;
activity, including transboundary impacts and, if those impacts are considered significant by the project participants or the host Party, have undertaken an environmental impact assessment in accordance with procedures as required by the host Party; CMXThe project activity is expected to result in a reduction in anthropogenic emissions by sources of greenhouse gases that are additional to any that would occur in the absence of the proposed project activity, in accordance with paragraphs 43 to 52 of the CDM modalities and procedures; The baseline and monitoring methodologies comply with requirements pertaining to methodologies previously approved by the Executive Board; Provisions for monitoring, verification and reporting are in accordance with decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions of the COP/MOP; The project activity conforms to all other requirements for CDM project activities in decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions by the COP/MOP? The DOE shall, prior to the submission of the validation report to the Executive Board. The DOE shall, prior to the submission of the validation report to the Executive Board, have received from the project participants written approval of voluntary participation from the designated national authority of each Party involved, including confirmation by the host Party that the project design document; In accordance with provisions on confidentiality contained in paragraph 27 (h) of the CDM modalities and procedures, the DOE shall make paralitic participants of its determination on at to whether, on the basis of the information provided and taking into account the comments received, the project activity. Notification to the project participants of its determination on the validation report activity should be validated; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation report activity. Notification to the project participant are additional to any that would occur in the absence of the proposed project activity, in accordance with paragraphs 43 to 52 of the CDM modalities and procedures; The baseline and monitoring methodologies comply with requirements pertaining to methodologies previously approved by the Executive Board; Provisions for monitoring, verification and reporting are in accordance with decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions of the COP/MOP; The project activity conforms to all other requirements for CDM project activities in decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions by the COP/MOP and the Executive Board. The following are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures: The DOE shall, prior to the submission of the validation report to the Executive Board, have received from the project participants written approval of voluntary participation from the designated national authority of each Party involved, including confirmation by the host Party that the project design document; The DOE shall neceive, within 30 days, comments on the validation requirements from Parties, stakeholders and UNFCCC accredited non-governmental organizations and make them publicly available; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation report activity should be validated; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation report to the Executive Board; The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the propect activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project activity to be validation report to the Executive Board; The DOE shall submit to the succutive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and an explanation of how it has taken due account of comme	activity, including transboundary impacts and, if those impacts are considered significant by the project participants or the host the Executive Board; Provisions for monitoring, verification and reporting are in accordance with decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions of the COP/MOP; The project activity conforms to all other requirements for CDM project activities in decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions by the COP/MOP and the Executive Board. The following are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures: The DOE shall, prior to the submission of the validation report to the Executive Board, have received from the project activity assists it in achieving sustainable development; In accordance with provisions on confidentiality contained in paragraph 27 (h) of the CDM modalities and procedures, the DOE shall make publicly available the project design document; The DOE shall receive, within 30 days, comments on the validation requirements from Parties, stakeholders and UNFCCC accredited non-governmental organizations and make them publicly available; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation of the project activity. Notification to the security Board; The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the base of the board; The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the base base by the DOE / project participants prior to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration of how it has taken due accound of comments received.	are additional to any that would occur in the absence of the proposed project activity, in accordance with paragraphs 43 to 52 procedures and relevant decisions of the COP/MOP; The project activity conforms to all other requirements for CDM project activities in decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions by the COP/MOP and the Executive Board. The following are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures: The DOE shall, prior to the submission of the validation report to the Executive Board, have received from the project participants written approval of voluntary participation from the designated national authority of each Party involved, including confirmation by the host Party that the project activity assists it in achieving sustainable development; In accordance with provisions on confidentiality contained in paragraph 27 (h) of the CDM modalities and procedures, the DOE shall make publicly available the project design document; The DOE shall receive, within 30 days, comments on the validation requirements from Parties, stakeholders and UNFCCC accredited non-governmental organizations and make them publicly available; After the deadline for receipt of comments, the DOE shall make a determination as to whether, on the basis of the information provided and taking into account the comments received, the project activity should be validated; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation report to the Executive Board; The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and an explanation of how it has taken due account of comments received. The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and an explanation of how it has taken due account of comments recei and procedures and relevant decisions by the COP/MOP and the Executive Board. The following are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures: The DOE shall, prior to the submission of the validation report to the Executive Board, have received from the project participants written approval of voluntary participation from the designated national authority of each Party involved, including confirmation by the host Party that the project activity assists it in achieving sustainable development; In accordance with provisions on confidentiality contained in paragraph 27 (h) of the CDM modalities and procedures, the DOE shall make publicly available the project design document; The DOE shall receive, within 30 days, comments on the validation requirements from Parties, stakeholders and UNFCCC accredited non-governmental organizations and make them publicly available; After the deadline for receipt of comments, the DOE shall make a determination as to whether, on the basis of the information provided and taking into account the comments received, the project activity should be validated; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation report to the Executive Board; The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and an explanation of how it has taken due account of comments received. There are only minor issues which should be addressed by the DOE / project participants prior to the registration of the project.
 The DOE shall, prior to the submission of the validation report to the Executive Board, have received from the project participants written approval of voluntary participation from the designated national authority of each Party involved, including confirmation by the host Party that the project activity assists it in achieving sustainable development; In accordance with provisions on confidentiality contained in paragraph 27 (h) of the CDM modalities and procedures, the DOE shall make publicly available the project design document; The DOE shall receive, within 30 days, comments on the validation requirements from Parties, stakeholders and UNFCCC accredited non-governmental organizations and make them publicly available; After the deadline for receipt of comments, the DOE shall make a determination as to whether, on the basis of the information provided and taking into account the comments received, the project activity should be validated; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation report to the Executive Board; The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and an explanation of how it has taken due account of comments received. There are only minor issues which should be addressed by the DOE / project participants prior to the registration of the project.
participants written approval of voluntary participation from the designated national authority of each Party involved, including confirmation by the host Party that the project activity assists it in achieving sustainable development; In accordance with provisions on confidentiality contained in paragraph 27 (h) of the CDM modalities and procedures, the DOE shall make publicly available the project design document; The DOE shall receive, within 30 days, comments on the validation requirements from Parties, stakeholders and UNFCCC accredited non-governmental organizations and make them publicly available; After the deadline for receipt of comments, the DOE shall make a determination as to whether, on the basis of the information provided and taking into account the comments received, the project activity should be validated; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation of the project activity. Notification to the project participants will include confirmation of validation and the date of submission of the validation report to the Executive Board; The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and an explanation of how it has taken due account of comments received. There are only minor issues which should be addressed by the DOE / project participants prior to the registration of the project.	☐ The following are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures:
DOE shall make publicly available the project design document; The DOE shall receive, within 30 days, comments on the validation requirements from Parties, stakeholders and UNFCCC accredited non-governmental organizations and make them publicly available; After the deadline for receipt of comments, the DOE shall make a determination as to whether, on the basis of the information provided and taking into account the comments received, the project activity should be validated; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation of the project activity. Notification to the project participants will include confirmation of validation and the date of submission of the validation report to the Executive Board; The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and an explanation of how it has taken due account of comments received. There are only minor issues which should be addressed by the DOE / project participants prior to the registration of the project. Section below to be filled in by UNFCCC secretariat	participants written approval of voluntary participation from the designated national authority of each Party involved, including accredited non-governmental organizations and make them publicly available; After the deadline for receipt of comments, the DOE shall make a determination as to whether, on the basis of the information provided and taking into account the comments received, the project activity should be validated; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation of the project activity. Notification to the project participants will include confirmation of validation and the date of submission of the validation report to the Executive Board; The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and an explanation of how it has taken due account of comments received. There are only minor issues which should be addressed by the DOE / project participants prior to the registration of the project.
 information provided and taking into account the comments received, the project activity should be validated; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation of the project activity. Notification to the project participants will include confirmation of validation and the date of submission of the validation report to the Executive Board; The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and an explanation of how it has taken due account of comments received. There are only minor issues which should be addressed by the DOE / project participants prior to the registration of the project.
project participants will include confirmation of validation and the date of submission of the validation report to the Executive Board; The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and an explanation of how it has taken due account of comments received. There are only minor issues which should be addressed by the DOE / project participants prior to the registration of the project. Section below to be filled in by UNFCCC secretariat registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and an explanation of how it has taken due account of comments received. There are only minor issues which should be addressed by the DOE / project participants prior to the registration of the project. Section below to be filled in by UNFCCC secretariat	project participants will include confirmation of validation and the date of submission of the validation report to the Executive Section below to be filled in by UNFCCC secretariat	registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and
	There are only minor issues which should be addressed by the DOE / project participants prior to the registration of the project.
Date received at UNFCCC secretariat 07/06/2007	Section below to be filled in by UNFCCC secretariat
	Date received at UNFCCC secretariat	07/06/2007

While the IRR calculated for the project activity is not financially attractive, the analysis does not demonstrate that it is less financially attractive than the only legally possible alternative (expansion of the open lagoon). To be considered additional, it should be demonstrated that the project activity is not the most favourable method of compliance with local wastewater treatment regulations.

CDM – Executive Board