to the designated operational entity (DOE) on how due account was taken of any comments has been received; Project participants have submitted to the DOE documentation on the analysis of the environmental impacts of the project activity, including transboundary impacts and, if those impacts are considered significant by the project participants or the host Party, have undertaken an environmental impact assessment in accordance with procedures as required by the host Party;	CDM project activity registration review form (F-CDM-RR) (By submitting this form, a Party involved (through the designated national authority) or an Executive Board member may request that a review is undertaken) submitted for registration CDM Project (0323) Please indicate, in accordance with paragraphs 37 and 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures, which validation requirement(s) may require review. A list of requirements is provided below. Please provide reasons in support of the request for review, including any supporting documentation.
validation requirement(s) may require review, including any supporting documentation. □ The following are requirements derived from paragraph 37 of the CDM modalities and procedures are satisfied; □ The following are requirements as set out in paragraphs 28 to 30 of the CDM modalities and procedures are satisfied; □ Comments by local stakeholders have been invited, a summary of the comments received has been provided, and a report to the designated operational entity (DOE) on how due account was taken of any comments has been received; □ Project participants have submitted to the DOE documentation on the analysis of the environmental impacts of the project activity including transboundary impacts and, if those impacts are considered significant by the project participants or the host Party, have undertaken an environmental impact assessment in accordance with procedures as required by the host Party; □ The project activity is expected to result in a reduction in anthropogenic emissions by sources of greenhouse gases that are additional to any that would occur in the absence of the proposed project activity, in accordance with paragraphs 43 to 52 of the CDM modalities and procedures; □ The baseline and monitoring methodologies comply with requirements for CDM project activity are received from the project activity conforms to all other requirements for CDM modalities and procedures: □ The project activity conforms to all other requirements for CDM modalities and procedures: □ The following are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures; <th></th> <th></th>
The participation requirements as set out in paragraphs 28 to 30 of the CDM modalities and procedures are satisfied; Comments by local stakeholders have been invited, a summary of the comments received has been provided, and a report to the designated operational entity (DOE) on how due account was taken of any comments has been received; Project participants have submitted to the DOE documentation on the analysis of the environmental impacts of the project activity, including transboundary impacts and, if those impacts are considered significant by the project participants or the host Party, have undettaken an environmental impact assessment in accordance with procedures as required by the host Party, The project activity is expected to result in a reduction in anthropogenic emissions by sources of greenhouse gases that are additional to any that would occur in the absence of the proposed project activity, in accordance with paragraphs 43 to 52 of the CDM modalities and procedures; The baseline and monitoring methodologies comply with requirements pertaining to methodologies previously approved by the Executive Board; Provisions for monitoring, verification and reporting are in accordance with decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions of the COP/MOP; The project activity conforms to all other requirements for CDM project activities in decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions by the COP/MOP? The following are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures: The following are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures including confirmation by the host Party that the project activity assists it in achieving sustainable development; In a cordance with provisions or nonfidentiality contained in paragraph 27 (h) of the CDM modalities and procedures, the DOE shall, provide on confidentiality contained in paragraph 27 (h) of t	validation requirement(s) may require review. A list of requirements is provided below. Please provide
 Comments by local stakeholders have been invited, a summary of the comments received has been provided, and a report to the designated operational entity (DOE) on how due account was taken of any comments has been received; Project participants have submitted to the DOE documentation on the analysis of the environmental impacts of the project activity, including transboundary impacts and, if those impacts are considered significant by the project participants or the host Party, have undertaken an environmental impact assessment in accordance with procedures as required by the host Party; The project activity is expected to result in a reduction in anthropogenic emissions by sources of greenhouse gases that are additional to any that would occur in the absence of the proposed project activity, in accordance with paragraphs 43 to 52 of the CDM modalities and procedures; The baseline and monitoring methodologies comply with requirements pertaining to methodologies previously approved by the Executive Board; The project activity conforms to all other requirements for CDM project activities in decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions by the COP/MOP and the Executive Board. The following are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures: The DOE shall, prior to the submission of the validation report to the Executive Board, have received from the project participants withen approval of voluntary participation from the designated national authority of each Party involved, including confirmation by the host Party that the project activity assists it in achieving sustainable development; In accordance with provisions on confidentiality contained in paragraph 27 (h) of the CDM modalities and procedures, the DOE shall make publicity available the project adsign document; After the deadiline for receipt of comments, the DOE shall make a determin	☐ The following are requirements derived from paragraph 37 d	of the CDM modalities and procedures:
to the designated operational entity (DOE) on how due account was taken of any comments has been received; Project participants have submitted to the DOE documentation on the analysis of the environmental impacts of the project activity, including transboundary impacts and, if those impacts are considered significant by the project participants or the host Party, have undertaken an environmental impact assessment in accordance with procedures as required by the host Party; The project activity is expected to result in a reduction in anthropogenic emissions by sources of greenhouse gases that are additional to any that would occur in the absence of the proposed project activity, in accordance with paragraphs 43 to 52 of the CDM modalities and procedures; The baseline and monitoring methodologies comply with requirements pertaining to methodologies previously approved by the Executive Board; The baseline and monitoring methodologies comply with requirements pertaining to methodologies previously approved by the Executive Board; The provisions for monitoring, verification and reporting are in accordance with decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions of the COP/MOP; The project activity conforms to all other requirements for CDM project activities in decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions by the COP/MOP and the Executive Board. The Following are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures: The DOE shall, prior to the submission of the validation report to the Executive Board, have received from the project participants written approval of voluntary participation from the designated national authority of each Party involved, including confirmation by the host Party that the project activity assist is in achieving sustainable development; In accordance with provisions on confidentiality contained in paragraph 27 (h) of the CDM modalities and procedures,	The participation requirements as set out in paragraphs 28 to 30 of the CDM modalities and procedures are satisfied;
<pre>activity, including transboundary impacts and, if those impacts are considered significant by the project participants or the host Party, have undertaken an environmental impact assessment in accordance with procedures as required by the host Party;</pre>	Comments by local stakeholders have been invited, a summary of the comments received has been provided, and a report to the designated operational entity (DOE) on how due account was taken of any comments has been received; additional to any that would occur in the absence of the proposed project activity, in accordance with paragraphs 43 to 52 of the CDM modalities and procedures;	activity, including transboundary impacts and, if those impacts are considered significant by the project participants or the host the Executive Board; Provisions for monitoring, verification and reporting are in accordance with decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions of the COP/MOP; The project activity conforms to all other requirements for CDM project activities in decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions by the COP/MOP and the Executive Board. The following are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures: The DOE shall, prior to the submission of the validation report to the Executive Board, have received from the project activity assists it in achieving sustainable development; In accordance with provisions on confidentiality contained in paragraph 27 (h) of the CDM modalities and procedures, the DOE shall make publicly available the project design document; The DOE shall receive, within 30 days, comments on the validation requirements from Parties, stakeholders and UNFCCC accredited non-governmental organizations and make them publicly available; The DOE shall receive, within 30 days, comments on the validation of the project activity should be validated; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation of the project activity. Notification to the project participants will include confirmation of validation and the date of submission of the validation reguirement, the written approval of the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration of how it has taken due account of comments received. The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration of how it has taken due account of comments received. The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the propos procedures and relevant decisions of the COP/MOP; The project activity conforms to all other requirements for CDM project activities in decision 17/CP.7, the CDM modalities and procedures and relevant decisions by the COP/MOP and the Executive Board. The following are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures: The DOE shall, prior to the submission of the validation report to the Executive Board, have received from the project participants written approval of voluntary participation from the designated national authority of each Party involved, including confirmation by the host Party that the project activity assists it in achieving sustainable development; In accordance with provisions on confidentiality contained in paragraph 27 (h) of the CDM modalities and procedures, the DOE shall make publicly available the project design document; The DOE shall receive, within 30 days, comments on the validation requirements from Parties, stakeholders and UNFCCC accredited non-governmental organizations and make them publicly available; After the deadline for receipt of comments, the DOE shall make a determination as to whether, on the basis of the information provided and taking into account the comments received, the project activity should be validated; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation of the project activity. Notification to the project participants will include confirmation of validation and the date of submission of the validation report to the Executive Board; The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and an explanation of how it has taken due account of comments received. The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation re and procedures and relevant decisions by the COP/MOP and the Executive Board. The following are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures: The DOE shall, prior to the submission of the validation report to the Executive Board, have received from the project participants written approval of voluntary participation from the designated national authority of each Party involved, including confirmation by the host Party that the project activity assists it in achieving sustainable development; In accordance with provisions on confidentiality contained in paragraph 27 (h) of the CDM modalities and procedures, the DOE shall make publicly available the project design document; The DOE shall receive, within 30 days, comments on the validation requirements from Parties, stakeholders and UNFCCC accredited non-governmental organizations and make them publicly available; After the deadline for receipt of comments, the DOE shall make a determination as to whether, on the basis of the information provided and taking into account the comments received, the project activity should be validated; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation report to the Executive Board; The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and an explanation of how it has taken due account of comments received. The DOE shall submit to be filled in by UNFCCC secretariat
 The DOE shall, prior to the submission of the validation report to the Executive Board, have received from the project participants written approval of voluntary participation from the designated national authority of each Party involved, including confirmation by the host Party that the project activity assists it in achieving sustainable development; In accordance with provisions on confidentiality contained in paragraph 27 (h) of the CDM modalities and procedures, the DOE shall make publicly available the project design document; The DOE shall receive, within 30 days, comments on the validation requirements from Parties, stakeholders and UNFCCC accredited non-governmental organizations and make them publicly available; After the deadline for receipt of comments, the DOE shall make a determination as to whether, on the basis of the information provided and taking into account the comments received, the project activity should be validated; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation report to the Executive Board; The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and an explanation of how it has taken due account of comments received. There are only minor issues which should be addressed by the DOE / project participants prior to the registration of the project.
 participants written approval of voluntary participation from the designated national authority of each Party involved, including confirmation by the host Party that the project activity assists it in achieving sustainable development; In accordance with provisions on confidentiality contained in paragraph 27 (h) of the CDM modalities and procedures, the DOE shall make publicly available the project design document; The DOE shall receive, within 30 days, comments on the validation requirements from Parties, stakeholders and UNFCCC accredited non-governmental organizations and make them publicly available; After the deadline for receipt of comments, the DOE shall make a determination as to whether, on the basis of the information provided and taking into account the comments received, the project activity should be validated; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation of the project activity. Notification to the project participants will include confirmation of validation and the date of submission of the validation report to the Executive Board; The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and an explanation of how it has taken due account of comments received. There are only minor issues which should be addressed by the DOE / project participants prior to the registration of the project. 	☐ The following are requirements derived from paragraph 40 of the CDM modalities and procedures:
DOE shall make publicly available the project design document; The DOE shall receive, within 30 days, comments on the validation requirements from Parties, stakeholders and UNFCCC accredited non-governmental organizations and make them publicly available; After the deadline for receipt of comments, the DOE shall make a determination as to whether, on the basis of the information provided and taking into account the comments received, the project activity should be validated; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation of the project activity. Notification to the project participants will include confirmation of validation and the date of submission of the validation report to the Executive Board; The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and an explanation of how it has taken due account of comments received. There are only minor issues which should be addressed by the DOE / project participants prior to the registration of the project. Section below to be filled in by UNFCCC secretariat	participants written approval of voluntary participation from the designated national authority of each Party involved, including accredited non-governmental organizations and make them publicly available; After the deadline for receipt of comments, the DOE shall make a determination as to whether, on the basis of the information provided and taking into account the comments received, the project activity should be validated; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation of the project activity. Notification to the project participants will include confirmation of validation and the date of submission of the validation report to the Executive Board; The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and an explanation of how it has taken due account of comments received. There are only minor issues which should be addressed by the DOE / project participants prior to the registration of the project. information provided and taking into account the comments received, the project activity should be validated; The DOE shall inform project participants of its determination on the validation of the project activity. Notification to the project participants will include confirmation of validation and the date of submission of the validation report to the Executive Board; The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and an explanation of how it has taken due account of comments received. There are only minor issues which should be addressed by the DOE / project participants prior to the registration of the project.
project participants will include confirmation of validation and the date of submission of the validation report to the Executive Board; The DOE shall submit to the Executive Board, if it determines the proposed project activity to be valid, a request for registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and an explanation of how it has taken due account of comments received. There are only minor issues which should be addressed by the DOE / project participants prior to the registration of the project. Section below to be filled in by UNFCCC secretariat registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and an explanation of how it has taken due account of comments received. There are only minor issues which should be addressed by the DOE / project participants prior to the registration of the project. Section below to be filled in by UNFCCC secretariat	project participants will include confirmation of validation and the date of submission of the validation report to the Executive Section below to be filled in by UNFCCC secretariat	registration in the form of a validation report including the project design document, the written approval of the host Party and
	There are only minor issues which should be addressed by the DOE / project participants prior to the registration of the project.
Date received at UNFCCC secretariat 02/06/06	Section below to be filled in by UNFCCC secretariat
	Date received at UNFCCC secretariat	02/06/06

Reasons for Request:

1. The project activity used 2 methodologies, AM0003 and ACM0001, and this combined use has not been appropriately dealt with by the DOE. AM0003 has been used for estimating the baseline emissions from the landfill and for additionality purposes. Whereas ACM0001 has been used only for estimating the emissions reductions based on the power generation and supply to grid, from the land fill operation.