Respected Shri Aggarwal ji,

We thank you very much for expressing your faith and confidence on us and by appointing us as your CDM consultant.

I am sorry to write you that because of some of the serious issues related to my wife's health, have cropped up, which has disturbed my activities therefore, I am not able to pay full attention to my professional assignments, therefore I am requesting to most of my clients to relieve me from the assigned works. Therefore, I request you also to kindly relieve me from your above assignment and request you to seek some other consultant support for getting your documents completed.

I feel sorry for not being able to help you in the matter. I will get in touch as and when, I am relieved off the pressing personal urgency.

I will be obliged to receive your needful favour in the matter.

Thanking You and with Respectful Regards

Sincerely Yours
