

About Us
Company
Our Business
CSR
Investor Information

NEWS

News Centre
Photo Gallery

NEWS CENTRE

Home » News » News Centre » 2004 News Releases

ICCL Power Plant sets new record 106% PLF in January 2004

Feb 11, 2004

Internal Press Release

Indian Charge Chrome Ltd (ICCL), part of the IMFA Group which is India ferro alloys, today announced that its captive power plant located at set a new record in the month of January 2004 by generating 77.174 m is equivalent to a plant load factor (PLF) of 106% and surpasses the ea mu achieved in January 2003.

Commenting on the new generation record Mr Subhrakant Panda, Joi said : "The operational turnaround of IMFA Group which began with the chrome ore mines in late 1999 is now firmly established. This is t operational records we have achieved recently and is yet another sign r

He added : "The excellent performance of the captive power plan operate our furnaces at a high load so as to encash the ongoing boc market which is on a cyclical high."

For any information relating to IMFA Group or to enquire about a Press please contact:

Mr Sanjeev Das
 Bhubaneswar sanjeevdas@imfa.in