Reasons for Request:

1. The methodology is not properly applied – the following information on electricity generation calculations is missing:

- 1.1 The PDD does not include electricity generation calculations.
- 1.2 The PDD even does not include data of the electricity generation of the project.
- 1.3 It is not clear how many turbines are in each project.

The DOE failed to calculate the emissions reduction potential. Emissions reduction potential is a function of the Renewable Energy electricity export, but this parameter is not calculated in the PDD and as the result, not checked by the DOE.

2. Economic evaluations do not include information that will allow to follow the calculations, and the DOE did not check it.
