| >>The methodology ACM0012 Ver04, describes two procedures (Annex-1 for greenfield project facilities and Annex-2 for existing/new project facilities) to “demonstrate the use of WECM in absence of project activity”. In view of the above kindly clarify in the following situation.Can a project activity which is already in commercial operation at the time start of validation demonstrate the use of waste energy in absence of the project activity, according to Annex 2 of methodology ACM0012 Ver-04 as per footnote number 18; as the Project facility as well as Project activity were already in commercial production as on the date of submitting the Proposal for validation to the DOE. Whereas project facility and project activity were implemented almost together at a location where there was no activity prior to the implementation of the project facility along with project activity. |   |
