

Name:	Kishor Rajhansa
Nationality:	Indian
Resident:	Qatar
Current Employer:	Gulf Organisation for Research & Development (GORD)
Current responsibilities:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Working as Senior Sustainability & Carbon Advisor. b. Leading the conceptualization, development and implementation of a unique regional carbon facilitation and climate finance platform, Gulf Carbon Trust (GCT) c. Development and maintenance of GCT Website. d. Development of regulatory framework including standards, procedures, forms and templates. e. Operationalize GCT, catalyze climate actions in the region. f. As Sustainability Advisor to FIFA World Cup 2022, Qatar, development and implementation of Sustainability Strategy for Host Country for delivery and legacy of Tournament. g. Administering Carbon Neutrality of FIFA World Cup 2022, Qatar. h. Development of new methodologies for regional projects. i. Working as Project Manager for Global Sustainability Assessment System (GSAS), MENA region's flagship Green Building Certification System. j. Working to improve standards and regulations of GSAS. k. Networking with international organizations for the capacity building of region's climate capacity.

Relationship to National DNA/any other entity	GORD works in close coordination with Ministry of Environment on various issues, including developing green codes. GORD's GSAS is a mandatory requirement for new building projects in Qatar.
Previous Employment:	UNFCCC, Bonn, Germany (Worked at Programme Manager in Standard Setting Unit of SDM from Nov 2006 till Jan 2016)
Financial Interests:	No
Professional Affiliations:	Approved Energy Auditor of Bureau of Energy Efficiency of India, Lead Auditor ISO 9001 and ISO 14001. Certified Climate and Renewable Energy Finance Expert from Frankfurt School and UNEP Collaboration Center.
Higher Education:	Master of Technology (Energy Management), PGPBA (Finance), Bachelor of Engg. (Industrial Engg.)