Maximum 250 characters      Intention to sell Wind Farm

Communication Text
Include background, details, and conclusion (unlimited length)      We are currently exploring the possibility of selling our wind farm. If we do are we allowed to collect carbon credits prior to the transfer of the service connection from our company to the buyer's company or can we agree with them that the carbon credits arising from future generation once they are the owner can come to our account. If we can continue to collect the CDM/CER'S we will need to draft a legal agreement as they have already agreed to it. However, is there evidence that the UN has allowed this, or is there a clause in the regulations that allow for this, and is it likely that this will be disallowed in the future?
